

OKTOBERFEST (GERMANY)

© talkmor.com

Activity 1: Comparatives & Superlatives

Complete the sentences.

1. Oktoberfest is one of the _____ (famous) festivals in the world.
2. Munich is _____ (busy) during Oktoberfest than at many other times of the year.
3. The festival is _____ (old) than many modern celebrations.
4. Traditional music is _____ (interesting) to some visitors than pop music.
5. Oktoberfest is one of the _____ (popular) tourist attractions in Germany.

Activity 2: Compare Festivals	Activity 3: Agree or Disagree?
Compare Oktoberfest with a festival from your country. Talk about: • food • music • traditions • visitors • activities	1. Traditional festivals should be protected. 2. Music makes festivals more enjoyable. 3. Every country should celebrate its traditions. 4. Food is an important part of culture. 5. Festivals help people learn about different countries. Explain your answers.

Activity 4: Mini Presentation

A Festival Worth Visiting

Prepare a one-minute presentation.

Include: where it is

- when it happens
- activities
- why tourists enjoy it

Activity 5: Finish the Sentences

1. I would visit Oktoberfest because...
2. The most interesting tradition is...
3. Festivals help people...
4. Germany is famous for...
5. I learned that...

Activity 6: Festival Survey

Ask three classmates.

Question	Student 1	Student 2	Student 3
Do you enjoy festivals?
Would you visit Germany?
Do you like traditional food?
Are traditions important?

Report your results to the class.

Teacher Key

Activity 1: Comparatives & Superlatives

Complete the sentences.

1. Oktoberfest is one of the most famous (famous) festivals in the world.
2. Munich is busier (busy) during Oktoberfest than at many other times of the year.
3. The festival is older (old) than many modern celebrations.
4. Traditional music is more interesting (interesting) to some visitors than pop music.
5. Oktoberfest is one of the most popular (popular) tourist attractions in Germany.