

BARBECUE & GRILLING

© talkmor.com

There Is / There Are	What Are They Doing?
Complete the sentences about the picture.	Use the present continuous.
1. There _____ a barbecue.	1. The man is _____ the barbecue.
2. There _____ some sausages.	2. The people are _____.
3. There _____ several people.	3. The woman is _____ a bicycle.
4. There _____ a cat.	4. The family is _____ food.
5. There _____ some drinks on the table.	5. The chef is _____.
6. There _____ two umbrellas in the picture.	6. The cat is _____ near the people.
7. There _____ a bicycle.	Possible verbs:
8. There _____ some vegetables.	cook • eat • drink • ride • sit • stand

3. Some or Any?

Complete the sentences with some / any.

- There are _____ sausages.
- There isn't _____ chicken on my plate.
- Are there _____ drinks?
- There are _____ vegetables on the table.
- We don't have _____ bread.
- Would you like _____ lemonade?

6. My Perfect Barbecue

Complete: At my perfect barbecue, there is

_____.

There are _____.

We eat _____.

We play _____.

Now tell your partner about it.

4. At the Barbecue

Complete the conversation.

A: Would you like some _____?

B: Yes, please.

A: Would you like some _____ too?

B: No, thanks. I'd like some _____.

A: Here you are.

B: Thanks!

Now practise with a partner.

Change the food and drinks each time.

We drink _____.

I invite _____.

5. Fix the Mistakes

- There is three sausages. _____
- There are a barbecue. _____
- Are there some drinks? _____
- The man cook the food. _____
- The people is eating. _____
- There isn't some bread. _____

Teacher's Key

Activity 1

1. is
2. are
3. are
4. is
5. are
6. are
7. is
8. are

Activity 2

1. cooking
2. eating/drinking/sitting
3. riding
4. eating
5. cooking
6. sitting/standing

Activity 3

Answers depend on sentence meaning, but the intended answers are:

1. some
2. any
3. any
4. some
5. any
6. some

Activity 5

1. There are three sausages.
2. There is a barbecue.
3. Are there any drinks?
4. The man is cooking the food.
5. The people are eating.
6. There isn't any bread.