

MY BEDROOM

© talkmor.com

First Impressions

Study the pictures.

Discuss:

- What is happening?
- What can you tell about the people?
- Which bedroom looks more interesting?
- Why?

Problem Solving

A teenager's room is always messy.

The parents are angry.

The teenager says: "It's my room!"

Work with a partner and find a solution that both sides can accept.

Spot the Differences

Find all 10 differences.

Now choose the three most interesting differences.

Explain why you noticed them.

What Does the Room Tell Us?

Choose one person.

What can you guess about them from the room?

Think about:

- interests
- habits
- age
- personality
- lifestyle

Remember: these are guesses, not facts!

Bedroom Makeover

Choose one bedroom.

You have a small budget to improve it.

What three things would you change?

Explain your choices.

Descriptive Writing

My Ideal Bedroom

Write 100–120 words.

Describe:

- furniture
- colours
- objects
- what you like to do there
- why you like your bedroom

Teacher's Choice

Which object in the picture would you most like to have for your own bedroom?

Explain!