

1. Warm-Up: What Would You Say?

Work with a partner. Read the problems below and share one piece of advice for each.

1. "I am always tired in the morning."
2. "I want to save money, but I spend too much."
3. "I lost my keys and I cannot find them anywhere."

2. Matching Advice Phrases

Match each sentence starter on the left with the best completion on the right.

Starter	Completion
1. You should...	a. trying a different approach?
2. Why don't you...	b. talk to someone about this.
3. Have you thought about...	c. be a good idea to write a list.
4. It might...	d. call them right now?

Answers: 1. [_] 2. [_] 3. [_] 4. [_]

3. Choose the Best Advice

Circle A, B, or C to give the most polite and natural response.

1. Friend: "I'm feeling very stressed about my exams."
 - A. Stop worrying.
 - B. You should take a short break and relax.
 - C. Do it now.
2. Colleague: "I keep forgetting my passwords."
 - A. Why don't you write them in a secure notebook?
 - B. You are forgetful.
 - C. That is bad.
3. Neighbor: "My garden is full of weeds."
 - A. Don't care.
 - B. Fix it today.
 - C. Have you thought about getting some help?

REAL ENGLISH BOX Giving Polite Advice

- Instead of "You must do this,"
- try "You might want to try..."
- Instead of "Do this now,"
- try "Why don't you...?"
- Instead of "That is a bad idea,"
- try "I'm not sure that's the best option."

4. Pair Practice: Problem & Advice

Choose two situations below. Student A explains the problem. Student B gives advice using should, why don't you, or have you thought about.

-  Situation 1: "I want to learn English faster, but I don't have time."
-  Situation 2: "My phone battery dies very quickly every day."
-  Situation 3: "I am always late for my morning bus."

5. Lesson Check - Check the boxes for skills you practiced today:

- [_] I can ask for advice using simple phrases.
- [_] I can give polite advice using should and why don't you.
- [_] I can respond appropriately when someone offers advice.

Teacher's Key

2. Matching Advice Phrases

Matching: 1-b, 2-d, 3-a, 4-c.

3. Choose the Best Advice

Best Advice: 1-B, 2-A, 3-C.