

© talkmor.com

Which three things are most important?

→ Can you fix the window before I move in?

[illegible]

REAL ENGLISH BOX

Instead of asking: "Internet included?"

try: "Is internet included in the rent?"

Instead of: "Pets okay?"

try: "Are pets allowed?"

Instead of: "When move in?"

try: "When can I move in?"

These small changes make your English sound much more natural.

3. Questions For The Landlord

Choose the best question for each situation.

1. You want to know when you can move in.
 - A. When can I move in?
 - B. When you move me in?
2. You want to know about the internet.
 - A. Internet is here?
 - B. Is internet included in the rent?
3. You want to know about parking.
 - A. Is there a parking space?
 - B. Where parking?
4. You want to know about repairs.
 - A. Who pays for repairs?
 - B. Who repair?
5. You want to know if you can have a pet.
 - A. Can I have a pet?
 - B. Pet is possible me?
6. You want to know about the lease.
 - A. How long is the lease?
 - B. How long lease have?

4. The Apartment Check

Imagine you are visiting an apartment. Ask your partner these questions:

1. How much is the rent?
2. Is the apartment furnished?
3. Are utilities included?
4. Is there internet?
5. Is there parking?
6. Are pets allowed?
7. How long is the lease?
8. How much is the deposit?

Now ask two extra questions of your own.

Teacher's Key

3. Questions For The Landlord

1-A, 2-B, 3-A, 4-A, 5-A, 6-A