1. FOUR CORNERS

Your teacher will give each corner of the room a word:

AND | BUT | BECAUSE | OR

Listen to the sentence your teacher reads.

Go to the corner with the conjunction that best completes the sentence.

Example

I like dogs _____ I don't like cats.

Go to: BUT

2. FINISH THE SENTENCE

Work with a partner.

Student A chooses a sentence beginning and reads it.

Student B finishes the sentence.

Then change roles.

AND	BUT
- I like _____ and _____. - I usually _____ and _____. - At the weekend, I _____ and _____.	- I like _____, but _____. - I want to _____, but _____. _____ is interesting, but _____.
BECAUSE	OR
- I am happy because _____. - I like _____ because _____. - I don't like _____ because _____.	- Do you want _____ or _____? - Would you rather _____ or _____? - We can _____ or _____.

Try to give different answers each time.

3. CONJUNCTION CHALLENGE

Work in pairs.

Choose one word: AND / BUT / BECAUSE / OR

You have 30 seconds to make as many correct sentences as possible using that word.

Example: AND - I like coffee and tea / I speak English and Chinese / My brother plays football and tennis.

After 30 seconds, choose another conjunction.

Challenge: Can you make a sentence with two different conjunctions?

I wanted to go out, but it was raining and I was tired.

4. WHY? BUT? OR?

Work with a partner.

Student A asks one of the questions.

Student B answers using a complete sentence.

Challenge: Try to use two conjunctions in one answer.

Example: I study English because I want to travel and meet new people.

Questions

1. Why do you like your hometown?
2. Why do you study English?
3. What do you like to eat?
4. What don't you like?
5. Do you prefer tea or coffee?
6. Do you prefer watching movies or TV?
7. What do you usually do in the evening?
8. What is something you like, but your friend doesn't like?

5. THE SILLY SENTENCE GAME

Make a sentence using the three words.

Example: pizza – tired – because → I ate pizza because I was tired.

Now try:

1. rain – umbrella – because → _____
2. coffee – tea – or → _____
3. English – Chinese – and → _____
4. hot – sunny – but → _____
5. bus – train – or → _____
6. hungry – restaurant – because → _____

Now make your own!

Write three words for your partner. _____, _____, _____.

6. EXIT TICKET

Before you finish, complete these four sentences.

1. I like _____ and _____.
2. I like _____, but _____.
3. I _____ because _____.
4. I want _____ or _____.

Read your sentences to your teacher or partner.
