1. How do we make questions?

English questions often need an auxiliary verb.

Present Simple

Do / Does + subject + verb?

Do you work here?

Does she live in Bangkok?

Past Simple

Did + subject + verb?

Did you see John?

Did they arrive yesterday?

Notice:

☒ Did you went home?

☐ Did you go home?

Present Continuous

Am / Is / Are + subject + verb-ing?

Are you working today?

Is she coming with us?

Present Perfect

Have / Has + subject + past participle?

Have you finished?

Has he called you?

2. Question words

Common question words include:

Who – person

What – thing/information

Where – place

When – time

Why – reason

How – method/condition

Which – choice

Examples:

Where do you live?

Why did she leave?

How are you feeling?

What have they decided?

REAL ENGLISH BOX

In everyday English, these questions are extremely useful:

What do you do?

"I'm a teacher."

Where do you live?

"I live in Chiang Mai."

What are you doing?

"I'm working."

What have you been doing?

"I've been studying."

Why did you leave?

"I was tired."

The important thing is the word order.

Question word + auxiliary + subject + verb

Where do you live?

5. Ask your partner

Ask your partner these questions.

1. Where do you live?
2. What do you usually do at weekends?
3. What are you doing this week?
4. What did you do yesterday?
5. What are you planning to do next weekend?
6. What have you been doing recently?

Ask one follow-up question after at least three answers.
