REAL ENGLISH BOX – Follow-up Questions

Good conversations don't stop after one answer.

A: What did you do yesterday?

B: I went shopping.

A: Really? What did you buy?

B: I bought some clothes.

A: Where did you go?

Useful follow-ups:

Really?

Why?

When?

Where?

Who with?

How was it?

What happened next?

5. Build a conversation

Work with a partner.

Student A asks:

What did you do last weekend?

Student B answers.

Student A must ask two follow-up questions.

Then change roles.

Now use:

What are you doing this weekend?

Again, ask two follow-up questions.
