

FOOD, EATING & COOKING

© talkmor.com

Activity 1: Look at the Talkmor Breakfast Café menu.

Discuss these questions with a partner.

1. Which breakfast plate would you choose? Why?
2. Which side would you add to your meal?
3. Which drink would you order?
4. Which item seems like the best value for money?
5. Which item would you never order? Explain why.
6. If you had $10 to spend, what would you order?
7. What would you recommend to someone who wants a light breakfast?
8. What would you recommend to someone who is very hungry?

Activity 2: Build a Breakfast Under Budget

You have $10.00 to spend at the Talkmor Breakfast Café.

Choose: ☐ One breakfast plate, or a combination of other items.

☐ Any extra sides or drinks you want.

☐ A total that does not go over $10.00.

Note: The menu also lists toast, cereal, yogurt and fruit as classic sides.

Choose the items you want and stay within your budget.

Now compare your order with a partner. Who has the most satisfying breakfast for the money?

Item	Price
Eggs	$4.50
Pancakes	$6.00
Bacon	$3.00
Toast	$2.00
Cereal	$3.50
Yogurt	$2.50
Fruit	$3.00
Coffee	$3.00
Tea	$2.50
Juice	$3.50
Milk	$2.00

Write your order and calculate the total.

Activity 3: Make Your Order Sound Natural

Complete each conversation with a suitable phrase from the box.

Could I have ...? I'll go for ... Can I get that without ...? That's all, thank you. What would you recommend?
--

Conversation A

Server: Good morning! Are you ready to order?

Customer: Yes, thanks. _____ the pancakes, please.

Server: Certainly. Would you like anything to drink?

Customer: A cup of tea, please. _____

Conversation B

Server: What can I get for you?

Customer: _____ I'd like something that isn't too heavy.

Server: The eggs with toast might be a good choice.

Customer: Sounds good. _____ the bacon?

Server: Of course.

Conversation C

Customer: Excuse me, _____ the bill, please?

Server: Certainly. Here you are.

Customer: Thank you. That's everything, thanks.

Activity 4: Role-Play – At the Breakfast Café

Work with a partner. Take turns being the customer and the server.

Customer

- Greet the server.
- Order a breakfast and a drink.
- Ask one question about the menu.
- Request one change to your order.
- Check the price or ask for the bill.

Server

- Greet the customer.
- Ask what they would like.
- Recommend an item.
- Respond politely to the request.
- Confirm the order and total.

Challenge: Your first choice is unavailable.

Explain what you would like instead.

REAL ENGLISH BOX

- "I'll go for the eggs." = I choose the eggs.
- "Could I get that on the side?" = Could it be served separately?
- "I'll have the same." = I want what the other person ordered.
- "That should do it, thanks." = That is enough; I don't need anything else.

Food allergy reminder: If you have a food allergy, tell the server clearly and ask whether the food can be prepared safely. Never assume that removing an ingredient

Teacher's Key

Activity 3 — Suggested answers

- Conversation A: "I'll go for"; "That's all, thank you."
- Conversation B: "What would you recommend?"; "Can I get that without"
- Conversation C: Excuse me, could I have the bill, please?

Budget activity — sample answer: Eggs ($4.50) + toast ($2.00) + milk ($2.00) = $8.50.

Many combinations are possible. Accept any correctly calculated total of $10.00 or less.

Role-play answers will vary.

Listen for polite requests, understandable orders and suitable responses.