

1. What Do You Need?

You're planning a one-week holiday.

Choose what is important to you.

- ☐ cheap flights
- ☐ a good hotel
- ☐ good weather
- ☐ interesting places
- ☐ good food
- ☐ public transport
- ☐ beaches
- ☐ nightlife
- ☐ quiet surroundings
- ☐ activities
- ☐ beautiful scenery

Compare your choices with a partner.

Which three are most important?

2. Compare the Options

You have three possible holidays.

A – Beach Holiday	B – City Break	C – Mountain Holiday
• 7 nights • beautiful beach • small hotel • very hot weather • few activities • cheap	• 5 nights • large modern hotel • museums and restaurants • lots of activities • expensive	• 7 nights • small guesthouse • beautiful scenery • hiking • cool weather • medium price

Answer the questions.

1. Which holiday is cheapest?
2. Which has the most activities?
3. Which would be best for someone who loves hiking?
4. Which would you choose?
5. Which would you NOT choose?
6. Why?

3. Make a Decision

You and your partner have $1,500 for a one-week holiday.

You must decide:

- where to go
- how to travel
- where to stay
- what to do

Discuss the options.

Useful language:

What about...?

How about...?

I'd rather...

I'd prefer to...

That sounds good.

I'm not sure about that.

Let's choose...

REAL ENGLISH BOX

When you agree with someone, you don't always need to say:

"I agree."

Try:

- "Sounds good."
- "Good idea."
- "That works for me."
- "I'm happy with that."
- "Let's do that."

These are very common in everyday conversations.

4. Your Holiday Plan

Write your final plan.

Destination: _____

Transport: _____

Accommodation: _____

Length of holiday: _____

Three things you will do:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Present your holiday to another pair.

Teacher's Key

2. Compare the Options

Teacher's Key:

1. A
2. B
3. C
- 4–6. Open answers.