

THANKSGIVING

© talkmor.com

Practise useful sentences for talking about a special meal and saying thank you.

A. There is / There are

Use There is with one thing. Use There are with two or more things.

There is a turkey on the table.

There is some bread in the basket.

There are pumpkins near the table.

There are many people in the room.

Complete each sentence with There is or There are.

1. _____ a pumpkin pie on the table.
2. _____ six people in my family.
3. _____ some corn on the plate.
4. _____ two cups beside the plates.

B. Countable and uncountable food

We often say a potato / two potatoes, but some bread, some corn, or some food.

1. Would you like (a / some) bread?
2. There are three (plate / plates) on the table.
3. I would like (a / some) vegetables.
4. We have two (pie / pies) for dessert.

C. Saying thank you

Thank you for inviting me.

This food looks delicious.

I'm thankful for my family and friends.

I'm glad we can eat together.

Complete the conversation:

A: Welcome! I'm glad you could come.

B: Thank you for _____ me.

A: Would you like some vegetables?

B: Yes, please. They look _____.

D. Write about a special meal

Write four sentences. Use There is / There are and at least one sentence with "I'm thankful for...".

Teacher's Key

A: 1 There is, 2 There are, 3 There is, 4 There are.

B: 1 some, 2 plates, 3 some, 4 pies.

C: inviting; delicious (or another suitable adjective).