

1. Have You Ever...?

Ask your partner.

Have you ever...

1. travelled alone?
2. missed a flight or train?
3. stayed in a hostel?
4. travelled by overnight train?
5. visited another country?
6. taken a very long flight?
7. gone on a road trip?
8. stayed somewhere unusual?

Ask one follow-up question after each answer.

Really? Where did you go?

How was it?

Who were you with?

Would you do it again?

2. A Great Trip

Complete the story.

Last summer, I went to _____ with _____.

We travelled by _____.

We stayed in _____.

The best thing about the trip was _____.

We spent most of our time _____.

One funny thing that happened was _____.

I'd definitely go back because _____.

Tell your story to your partner.

3. Good Travel Experiences / Bad Travel Experiences

Put the experiences into the correct column.

- beautiful hotel
- terrible weather
- amazing food
- friendly local people
- long delay
- comfortable flight
- crowded beach
- interesting tour
- noisy hotel
- beautiful scenery

Good Experience

Bad Experience

Now choose one good experience and one bad experience and explain them to your partner.

REAL ENGLISH BOX

When telling a travel story, don't repeat:

"It was good."

Try:

It was amazing.

It was fantastic.

It was really enjoyable.

It was disappointing.

It was a bit stressful.

It was better than I expected.

It wasn't quite what I expected.

4. The Best Trip

Tell your partner about a memorable trip.

Include:

Where → When → Who → How → What happened → How you felt → Would you go again?

Try to speak for two minutes.
