

1. Build the Perfect Trip

Work with a partner.

You have 10 days and $2,500.

Plan a complete holiday.

2. Something Has Changed!

You have already planned your holiday.

Then your partner gives you a problem.

Choose one:

- A. Your hotel is suddenly unavailable.
- B. Your flight is too expensive.
- C. The weather forecast is terrible.
- D. Your travel partner wants a completely different kind of holiday.
- E. You have $500 less than you expected.

Work together to change your plan.

Use:

- We could...
- Why don't we...?
- What if we...?
- Maybe we should...
- I'd rather...
- Let's...

3. The Travel Interview

Interview your partner.

Ask:

1. What's the best holiday you've ever had?
2. What's the worst travel experience you've had?
3. Where would you love to go?
4. What kind of traveller are you?
5. Do you prefer planning everything or being spontaneous?
6. What's more important: price, comfort or experience?
7. Would you live in another country for a year? Why/why not?

After the interview, tell another student three interesting things you learned.

Decide:

Where will you go?

When will you go?

How will you get there?

Where will you stay?

What will you do?

What will you eat?

How much will you spend?

 Craiyon

4. Final Speaking Challenge – Sell Me Your Holiday!

Imagine you work for a travel company.

Create a holiday that you think your partner would love.

You have two minutes to persuade them.

Include:

- destination
- transport
- accommodation
- activities
- food
- price
- why they will enjoy it

Your partner can ask questions.

Then switch roles.

Final Self-Check

I can...

- ☐ talk about my travel experiences.
- ☐ describe the kind of holiday I prefer.
- ☐ plan a holiday with another person.
- ☐ make travel suggestions.
- ☐ ask for travel information.
- ☐ talk about advantages and disadvantages.
- ☐ tell a travel story.
- ☐ have a natural conversation about holidays.