Activity 2: Save the Party

The Situation

You have been asked to rescue a birthday party for 20 people.

The organiser made several mistakes:

- 25 pizzas
- 2 bottles of water
- 0 desserts
- 1 packet of crisps
- 50 balloons
- No music
- No plates
- No cups

The budget is limited.

You cannot buy everything.

Party Rules

Your final plan must include:

- ✅ enough food for everyone
- ✅ some healthy options
- ✅ a few desserts
- ✅ enough drinks
- ✅ not too much sugar
- ✅ not too many decorations
- ✅ at least one surprise for guests

Your Mission

You have £100 to improve the party.

Decide:

1. What will you buy? _____
2. What will you remove? _____
3. What do you already have too much of? _____
4. What do you not have enough of? _____
5. What should guests bring? _____

Complete the table.

Item	Buy More	Remove Some	Why?
Pizza
Drinks
Snacks
Decorations

Discussion

Present your party plan.

Explain:

- What did you buy?
- What did you remove?
- Why?
- Which changes were most important?

Activity 3: Customer Reviews

Part A: Review Detective

Read the reviews.

Review 1	Review 2	Review 3
"The hotel had a lot of facilities, and the rooms were clean. However, there weren't enough parking spaces and there was too much noise at night."	"The café offered a lot of food choices, but there weren't many vegetarian meals, and there wasn't enough seating."	"The gym had lots of equipment, but there were too many people after work and not enough lockers."

Find the Evidence

Complete the table.

Business	Positive Points	Problems
Hotel
Café
Gym

Part B: The Manager Responds

Imagine you are the manager.

Write a response to one review.

Example: "Thank you for your feedback. We agree that there aren't enough parking spaces. We are currently working on this problem."

Use at least:
- two quantifiers
- one positive comment
- one promise

_____

Part C: Give Advice

Choose one business.

Write five recommendations.

Example: Add a few more tables.

- Offer more vegetarian dishes.
