Answer Key

7. Error Correction

1. If I had studied harder, I would have passed the exam last year.
2. If she had been more careful, she wouldn't have lost her passport.
   (or: If she were more careful, she wouldn't lose her passport. – but the past result is better matched with "had been")
3. If they had left earlier, they would have arrived on time.
4. If I were rich, I would have bought that apartment.
   (or: If I had been rich, I would have bought that apartment.)

10. Quick Review – Circle the correct option

1. If I had more free time last year, I would have travelled more.
2. If she were better at maths, she would have become an engineer.
3. If we hadn't missed the train, we would be there already.
   (Note: This is a mixed conditional – past condition → present result)
