REAL ENGLISH

I can see it happening if…

It would only work if…

The biggest challenge would be…

In the long run…

Sooner or later…

At the end of the day…

That's easier said than done.

I wouldn't be surprised if…

It really depends on…

We're already seeing signs of…

1. Discussion

1. Should the standard working week become four days?
2. How worried are you about automation taking jobs?
3. Would you change career completely if you had the chance?
4. Should governments pay a universal basic income if robots take most jobs?
5. Which jobs do you think will disappear completely in the next 20 years?
6. Will a university degree still be necessary for a good career in the future?
7. What skills should schools teach today to prepare kids for future jobs?
8. At what age should people retire, and will retirement even exist in 50 years?

2. Negotiation role-play

Student A: Employee who wants a four-day week.

Student B: Manager who is worried about productivity.

Negotiate for 4–5 minutes and try to find a compromise.

3. Prediction

In 15 years, how do you think most people will work?

Share your prediction and react to your partner's ideas.
